I came late to the meeting so I missed the patrol reports.

Every Patrol has problems with scouts being on their phones while in a meeting.

Pull all the older scouts together and address any problems with the scouts.

Scouts have more impact on the troop than the adults.

The location of the patrol meeting can change the focus of the patrol.

If the scouts are not doing what they are supposed to, then the patrol leader can delegate responsibility and ask them to run the patrol.

One way that you get scouts on topic is to do exercises or a game.

October Campout

If the PLC wants to, they can dress up as Vikings.
