SPL	Old Business The senior patrol leader sets aside time for the council to discuss items mentioned in the minutes of the previous meeting that were unresolved or otherwise left undone. The group can determine what steps should be taken to close these matters.
SPL	Big Event Planning The troop's big event of the month requires careful planning. So does the program feature for the month to come. The patrol leaders' council should discuss these portions of the troop's annual program, review the preparations that have occurred, and figure out what else must be done. The senior patrol leader can assign to various patrols the responsibilities for making final preparations (which can be completed during patrol time).
	Troop Meeting Planning Each PLC member should have copies of the troop meeting plans for the coming month. With the help of the senior patrol leader, patrol leaders can finalize which patrol or troop leaders will be accountable for each portion of the meetings. PLC members filling in blank spots on the troop meeting plans can also include information about where to find the equipment and other items necessary for any of the month's games, skills instructions, or other meeting activities.	Next Month: Theme _____ Service Patrol _____ Scout Ideal _____ Camping Location and Plan:
SPL / PL'S	New Business As the PLC meeting nears its conclusion, the senior patrol leader can bring up for discussion any new items of business and can invite PLC members to raise any issues they feel should be considered by the full council.
SM	Scoutmaster Minute The Scoutmaster will wrap up the meeting with a positive, motivational thought or story that will help pull the group together as a unified team.
