

Attendance:

Sean
Matt
Sid
Kieran
Chris
Aidan
AJ
Tyler
Timmy

Patrol Reports:

Banana Turtles:

- Induction ceremony went well
- Missing patrol advisors so they couldn't achieve their advancement goals
- Started discussing the August campout and a general outline for the canoeing aspect

Lizards:

- Started working on scout rank requirements
- Working on incorporating games into the requirements being learned

Beavers:

- Continuing June planning with choosing a location
- Sent out gear from the patrol box to get cleaned, not everything is back yet so Sid is making a plan for if gear is still missing

T-Birds:

- Planning the caving campout
- New scouts are noisy
- Grubmaster didn't take home cooler/ dry box

Bears:

- Planned March campout
- Smart goal has been "getting there"
- A lot of adult involvement but it's becoming healthier with less overall control

Wise Guys:

- Smart goal has been going well with winning the totem pole
- 4 presentations done with a few pieces left to finish for their service month

March Camping:

17:30 - arrival

20:30 - arrival at state park

Saturday

6 ish - wakeup/ breakfast

8:00 - at beach for planting

12:00 - lunch, picnic style lunch on beach

14:00 - get back to campsite, advancement starts with senior scouts teaching different scouting skills to younger scouts

16:00 - primitive cooking

18:00 - dinner

20:00 - campfire, no mc

Sunday

7:00 - wakeup (possibly too early for 12:00 return)

April:

3 campsite options for caving

Unknown if presentations/ games are finished

May:

- Hawk mountain booked for cope
- Working on schedule
- Presentations done
- Games planned out from team-building activities on the COPE website

Plant Sale:

- Sid and Josh running it
- Deciding minimum number of shifts
- Will have more information next PLC
- May 12,13,14th

Spring Gear Session:

- Troop help to reorganize the shed and takedown sleds
- Aiming for a weekend on a Sunday (April 1/2, April 15/16, March 26)

Mrs. Lawson's Training Session:

- Meeting next month spent on how to plan a campout instead of a service patrol presentation/game
- Maybe 3rd or 4th week of T-birds' presentations (April 3rd)
- Approved by PLC

Service Project:

- Troop planting trees for someone who reached out
- Counts for conservation hours
- Approved by PLC

Smart Goal Check-in:

Banana Turtles - Not going well due to new scouts and this coming camping trip but they are trying to squeeze in time for planning their patrol trip

Beavers - Have been working with Josh and Keegan along with the new scouts which have empty books so they have to update books with troop master before proceeding with advancement help

T-Birds - Unknown, Alex is on vacation, Kieran thinks that people are participating more with kp

Chris - His attendance goals is going well

ASPL 2 - Spencer is doing well with packing the trailer and is getting more confident

ASPL 1 - Patrols have been doing better with staying on task and getting done what they have to

Bears and Wise Guys gave theirs at patrol check-ins

Mr. Hawley's Spiel:

- Adding a tab for patrol gear to the planning workbook document
- Simplifying the planning sheet
- Going over types of presentations

Improvements:

Banana Turtles:

- Would like to get their room back
- Ensure stuff gets done during meetings with new scouts

Lizards:

- First years are excited

Beavers:

- Both Sam's work well with the patrol and have integrated well
- Need to work on communication with some members

T-Birds:

- PL should attend more campouts

SPL:

- Good job with the trip planning for future trips

ASPL 2:

- Warrant officers have been doing well

Bears:

- Communication is becoming an issue

Wise Guys:

- Have been doing well with the new scouts

ASPL 1:

- A more lively troop/ scouts are more involved in scouting except for Bears sometimes
- New scouts are good both into new patrols and the wizard lizards