TRAIL WORSHIP FOR CHRISTIANS, MUSLIMS, AND JEWS PHILMONT SCOUT RANCH, CIMARRON, NEW MEXICO

Eagles Soaring High

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA,

WELCOME TO PHILMONT!

The coming days will be ones of happiness, challenge, and excitement. There will be many times when you reach the top of a mountain and see the most beautiful view you have ever seen. When you suddenly get a "second wind" or just before you fall asleep under the glorious stars, you will feel the nearness of God, the Creator of this wonderful place.

This worship book has been created specifically for each camper to carry on the trail. There are five sections in this book—three designed for use by Christians, Jews, and Muslims, as well as one for interfaith use, and one with hymns. Each section provides opportunity for spiritual growth and development. We hope that through your use of Eagles Soaring High, you too will open yourself to a process that leads to spiritual fulfillment.

Keep this book handy and use it often around the campfire, before going to bed, enjoying sunrise or sunset, or just along the trail. This book provides daily meditations, prayers for the Sabbath, and suggestions for worship services. It can be used for individual devotions, with a friend, or with your crew. Eagles Soaring High will help make your Philmont experience ever more rewarding. It is yours to keep and to use as often as you wish.

Plan to participate in the religious services of your faith tradition in base camp both before and after your trek, as well as the scheduled backcountry services. Ask the chaplain aide (or crew member) or a Philmont chaplain for more information.

We wish you a safe, enjoyable, exciting, and rewarding experience. May God bless and protect you.

Pax tecum. Shalom. As-salaamu aleykum. Peace.

A SHORT ORDER OF WORSHIP—I

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: This is the day the Lord has made

All: Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

HYMN (see Hymns Section, H-1 to H-20)

Psalm 95:1-7a (Revised English Version [REV])

Come! Let us raise a joyful song to the Lord, a shout of triumph to the rock of our salvation. Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving and sing psalms of triumph to him.

For the Lord is a great God a great King above all gods. The depths of the earth are in his hands, the peaks of the mountains belong to him; the sea is his, for he made it, and the dry land which his hand fashioned.

Enter in! Let us bow down and worship, let us kneel before the Lord who made us, for he is our God, we the people he shepherds, the flock in his care.

PRAYER (in unison) God, our Father, we thank you for the beauty of the earth, for the food we eat and for the comforts we enjoy. Help us to love others more, to be concerned with the problems of our day, and to understand Your will in our actions. Grant us the strength to live wisely and well, to be worthy users of Your creation and ready and willing workers for the causes of goodness. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Hebrews 10:22-25 (Today's English Version [TEV])

"So let us come near to God with a sincere heart and a sure faith, with hearts that have been purified from a guilty conscience and with bodies washed with clean water. Let us hold on firmly to the hope we profess, because we can trust God to keep His promise. Let us be concerned for one another, to help one another to show love and to do good. Let us not give up the habit of meeting together, as some are doing. Instead, let us encourage one another all the more, since you see that the Day of the Lord is coming nearer."

MEDITATION/REFLECTION

You may read the meditation for this day from pages C-9–C-19 or take a few moments for personal silent reflection. Some may choose to share their reflections with the crew.

A TRAIL LITANY

- Leader: For silver on the sage, for starlit skies above, For aspen covered hills, for the country that I love,
- All: We thank you, O Lord.
- Leader: For wind in whispering pines, for eagles soaring high, For purple mountains rising against an azure sky,
- All: We thank you, O Lord.
- Leader: For friends who walk with me along the awesome trail, For those who share their care for me, especially when I fail,
- All: We thank you, O Lord.
- Leader: O Jesus, Who walked the trail with the Emmaus two, Join us on our mountain trek the whole day through.
- All: O Lord, abide with us.
- Leader: As the sun rises over the tall lonesome pine, May your care and love for us in all our actions shine.
- All: O Lord, walk with us along the trail. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF PRAISE

(After a mountain climb at Baldy Mountain, Tooth of Time, or other scenic site.)

PRAISE OF THE CREATOR

Psalm 148

(spoken responsively)

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the heights above.

Praise Him, sun and moon, praise Him, all you shining stars.

Praise Him, you highest heavens and you waters above the skies.

Let them praise the name of the Lord for He commanded and they were created.

He set them in place forever and ever; He gave a decree that will never pass away. Praise the Lord from the earth, you great sea creatures and all ocean depths, lightning and hail, snow and clouds, stormy winds that do His bidding,

you mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars, wild animals and all cattle, small creatures and flying birds, kings of the earth and all nations you princes and all rules on the earth, young men and maidens, old men and children.

Let them praise the name of the Lord, for His name alone is exalted; His splendor is above the earth and the heavens.

He has raised up for His people a horn, the praise of all His saints, for all His people who are near to Him

All: Praise the Lord!

MOUNTAIN HYMN

DAILY TRAIL MEDITATIONS

DAY ONE

SETTING DIRECTIONS

"Lord, make me know Your ways. Lord, teach me Your paths."

To hike successfully at Philmont requires much preparation. Physical readiness, adequate planning in terms of equipment, food, clothing, etc., and a planning of itinerary are all ways to set a direction for your crew. Mental and spiritual preparation are no less important. The Philmont wilderness is a place where God can speak to you in new and exciting ways. Just as you prepare for a trek by tapping the resources of advisers, rangers, and those who have gone before you, so too, do you prepare for experiences of God on this trek by tapping the resources of God's Word. We do daily prayer and reflection which bring us into deeper contact with the Word of God: Jesus. He is your Guide, your Friend, your Strength, your Counselor on this journey. Jesus shows us the way and helps us conquer all fears!

For reflection: How are you preparing yourself to make this trek a journey with the Lord? What can you do to keep yourself aware of Jesus' continuing presence on the trail? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lead me in Your truth, O Lord and teach me! You are the God of my salvation.

DAY TWO

"When I look at the sky, which You have made, at the moon and the stars which You set in their places—What is man, that You think of him, Mere man, that You care for him?" How beautiful are the Philmont nights! The stars are so plentiful; they seem so close that you feel you can almost touch them. The silence and beauty of the night help us to realize the quiet power and majesty of God. Yet, this God loves each of us personally and intimately, and the greatest and most beautiful part of His creation lies not in the heavens, but right here on earth. You are the crowning glory of His creative hands—you are the reason for all creation.

For reflection: How do you see yourself as made in the image and likeness of God? What can you do to deepen respect for the beauty and glory of God alive in you?

Are you aware that God is present in each member of your crew? Does that knowledge change how you respond to them? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lord, thank you for life and beauty and the bounty of your creation.

DAY THREE

WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH

"If God is for us, who can be against us? Who then, can separate us from the love of Christ? Can trouble do it, or hardship or persecution or hunger or poverty or danger? For I am certain that nothing can separate us from His love . . . there is nothing in all creation that will ever be able to separate us from the love of God which is ours through Christ Jesus our Lord."

(Romans 8:31, 35, 38–39, TEV)

The Philmont trek involves climbing mountains and hills; crossing rivers and streams; and dealing with weather, fatigue, and unexpected circumstances and challenges. At times, it may seem that the difficulties are insurmountable, the hardships unbearable. However, it often happens that the greatest hardships in life become our greatest opportunities for growth. We have to realize that we are not alone—we have each other and the abiding presence and help of our God Who will guide us and give us strength. Nothing can separate us from His love that comes to us through Jesus. He invites us to trust in him and to realize that we walk with him.

For reflection: What have I done so far to help my crew come together as a team? Do I need to change in order to be more crew-oriented? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lord, help me to be cheerful in the face of difficulties. With your help I will conquer all obstacles!

DAY FOUR

WINDS IN WHISPERING PINES

"He (the Lord) traveled on the wings of the wind." (II Samuel 22:11 and Psalm 18:10, TEV)

These words are a line from a song that King David sang to his Lord. We can often hear the wind moving through the pines and playing a soft melody. It is almost as if the trees were whispering to one another or to us below. Or as if God were playing a lullaby for us on His wind instrument. The Lord touches all of His creation. He caresses the pines with His wind. He touches us with His love and forgiveness.

The "whispering pines" can become the sound in nature that reminds us of St. Paul's gentle words, "Be kind and tenderhearted to one another and forgive one another, as God has forgiven you through Christ." (Ephesians 4:32, TEV) He who lives by forgiving and being forgiven lives in peace.

For reflection: Is there one whom you want to ask for forgiveness? Is there one whom you feel the need to forgive? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Dear Father, where I have sinned, forgive me, and where I am afraid, give me courage. Amen.

DAY FIVE

EAGLES SOARING HIGH

"Even those who are young grow weak; young men can fall exhausted. But those who trust in the Lord will find their strength renewed. They will rise on wings like eagles; they will run and not get weary; they will walk and not grow weak."

(Isaiah 40:31, TEV)

Have you seen an eagle on the trail yet? We can learn from eagles and from so much in nature.

One day a fisherman watched as a mother eagle dropped a young eaglet into the canyon below. The eaglet plummeted and fluttered. It appeared that it was about to be dashed to its death on the rocks below, when out of the sky plunged the father eagle and caught his offspring on his broad back. Then he flew up high and dropped the young one again. This time the mother caught the little one on her back. The routine was repeated until the little eagle learned to fly.

God gives us opportunities to try our wings so that we might learn to fly on our own. Certainly the Philmont experience is one of these learning and growing opportunities. Yet God always watches over us and spreads His wings of protection beneath us.

God said to the Israelites on their wilderness trek, "I bore you on eagles' wings." Christ Who gave His life for us on the cross has promised, "I will be with you always." So lift up your head and rejoice!

For reflection: Have you discovered new dimensions of your personality? How have you been willing to accept the challenges of the Philmont experience? How have you supported a crew member as he faces the Philmont challenge? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

O Lord, when I grow weary, lift me up on your wings. Give me the courage and strength I need for tomorrow. Amen.

DAY SIX

FOR FOOD, FOR RAIMENT

"Having food and raiment, let us therewith be content." (I Timothy 6:8, King James Version [KJV])

Another translation of Scripture translates this verse: "If we have food and clothes, that should be enough for us." (TEV)

Most of us at Philmont have become accustomed to having much more than food and clothes. There is nothing wrong with wealth. Some of the Biblical heroes like Abraham and David were very wealthy. Our heavenly Father in His mercy not only forgives us all our sins through Jesus' death at Calvary, He also provides us with all that we need to support our bodily life.

We who have been so richly blessed may choose in thanksgiving to share our wealth with others.

Dr. William Foege, who helped eradicate smallpox from the world, recently challenged us to work together to eradicate hunger as well.

If we include the hungry in the "us" when we pray, "give us this day our daily bread," then we are also asking God to involve us in feeding the hungry. What a great commission this becomes: to join God in feeding the hungry and clothing the naked! Jesus promises us "Whenever you did this for one of the least important of these brothers of mine, you did it for Me."

(Matthew 25:40, TEV)

For reflection: What have you done for those less fortunate than yourself? What do you consider our obligations to those in need are? What does Jesus mean when he says, "Blessed are the poor . . . "? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

For food, for raiment . . . we thank Thee, O Lord.

DAY SEVEN

FOR LIFE, FOR OPPORTUNITY

"I have come in order that you might have life in all its fullness."

(John 10:10b, TEV)

How precious is the gift of life! At Philmont we can come to a deeper understanding and appreciation of its importance. How necessary to respect it in all its forms. We can take so much for granted—the air we breathe, the water we drink, the health we enjoy, the beauty of the earth. God gives us life to enjoy and he gives us opportunity to grow, to achieve, to find joy and to find happiness. Through Jesus, God gives us the ultimate opportunity—the path to eternal life—life with God and each other forever.

For reflection: What does the concept of stewardship mean to you? When have you been a good manager of your own life? When have you shown respect for God's creation? Have you shown respect for another's personal property? How seriously do I take the Wilderness Pledge? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

For life, for opportunity, we thank Thee, O Lord.

DAY EIGHT

FOR FRIENDSHIP AND FELLOWSHIP

"The greatest love a person can have for his friends is to give his life for them. And you are My friends if you do what I command you . . . I call you friends . . . You did not choose Me; I chose you." (John 15: 13–16, TEV)

One day a kindergarten teacher asked her class, "What is a friend?" One little boy answered, "A friend is someone who knows you and still likes you." If he is right, then "what a friend we have in Jesus!"

Jesus knows our most secret self and still He loves us. When He prayed on the cross, "Father, forgive them . . . ," He was praying also for you and me. "The blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin." Jesus promised us life with Him forever. He is a real friend.

Friends on the trail are God's gifts to us and through them God seeks to care for us and love us. They are not perfect, but like us, through Christ's death and resurrection, they live forgiven. We thank God for good friends.

For reflection: Who are some of the people who have been friends to you on the trail? Thank God for them by name and thank those who have shown you acts of friendship. Have I been a friend? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or crew member.)

For friendship and fellowship, we thank Thee, O Lord. Amen.

DAY NINE

COUNTRY THAT I LOVE

"And you will live a long time in the rich and fertile land that the Lord promised to give your ancestors and their descendants . . . The land that you are about to enter is a land of mountains and valleys, a land watered by rain. The Lord, your God takes care of this land and watches over it throughout the year."

(Deuteronomy 11:9, 11-12, TEV)

Philmont does something to people—it is not something that can be put into words easily. Something "gets into your blood." A love for the land, the atmosphere, the people-all these work together in you to make Philmont an experience that you can never forget. The base of that experience is the presence of God-an awareness that all we have and all we offer to others comes from God. The brotherhood that we share as God's children and as Scouts brings us to a sense of peace, a feeling that in some strange way, everything is all right. In that sense, we can call Philmont a "Scouting Paradise," a glimpse of that "Paradise" all of us are called to and will one day experience. It can be likened to the mountaintop experience that the apostles felt when Jesus was transfigured before them; when He gave them a glimpse of the beauty of God's presence. The scriptures say "His face was shining like the sun and His clothes were dazzling white."

(Matthew 17:2, TEV)

For reflection: Can you identify your mountaintop experience? How might this experience help you during difficult times? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lord, it is good for us to be here.

DAY TEN

TRAIL'S END

"I have done my best in the race, I have run the full distance, and I have kept the faith."

(II Timothy 4:7, TEV)

St. Paul at the end of his ministry wrote these words to his young friend Timothy. You have come to the end of your trek at Philmont. Do you feel good about having completed your trek? What do you think was one of your biggest accomplishments these past 10 days? (You may share your thoughts with a friend or crew member.)

Not all of your accomplishments have been physical. You have interacted with God's nature and God's people. There has been frustration and fun. Intermingled with this has been your reflection on God's love and care for you in Christ Jesus, especially in His death and resurrection in your behalf. Through it all, you have grown spiritually. You have run the race and kept the Faith.

You have come to a better understanding of yourself and of your fellow crew members. You have grown in your appreciation of God's gifts to you in nature, in friends, and in your Savior.

Now it is time to look homeward to friends and family. You have matured. You are now an even greater and finer gift to your family and friends. God be praised for it all!

For reflection: How will you say "Thank You" for this experience? Will you say "I love you" to those who made this trip possible? What new obligations do you take on because you have been to Philmont? What have I learned about making responsible choices? How can I make better ethical choices when I get home? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lord, thank You for every gift that You gave me these past days. As I go home, make me a special gift to my family and friends. Amen.

MY COUNTRY, 'TIS OF THEE

My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing; land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrims' pride, from every mountainside let freedom ring!

My native country, thee, land of the noble free, thy name I love; I love thy rocks and rills, thy woods and templed hills; my heart with rapture thrills, like that above.

Let music swell the breeze, and ring from all the trees sweet freedom's song; let mortal tongues awake; let all that breathe partake; let rocks their silence break, the sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to thee, author of liberty, to thee we sing; long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light; protect us by thy might, great God, our King.

THE CHURCH'S ONE FOUNDATION

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord; She is His new creation by water and the word: From heav'n He came and sought her to be His holy bride; With His own blood He bought her, and for her life He died. Elect from ev'ry nation, yet one o'er all the earth, Her charter of salvation, one Lord, one faith, one birth; One holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food, And to one hope she presses, with ev'ry grace endued.

Yet she on earth hath union with God the Three in One, And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won:

O happy ones and holy! Lord, give us grace that we, Like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with thee. Amen.

AMAZING GRACE

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a soul like me.

I once was lost but now I'm found, was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved.

How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come.

'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far and grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures.

He will my shield and portion be, as long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun,

We've no less days to sing God's praise, than when we first begun.

John Newton, 1779 Public Domain

O GOD, OUR HELP IN AGES PAST

O God, our help in ages past, our Hope for years to come, Our Shelter from the stormy blast and our eternal Home.

Before the hills in order stood or earth received her frame, From everlasting Thou art God, to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight are like an evening gone; Short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

> Isaac Watts, 1719 Public Domain

THIS IS MY FATHER'S WORLD

This is my Father's world, And to my list'ning ears, All nature sings, and round me rings The music of the spheres. This is my Father's world, I rest me in the thought Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas— His hand the wonders wrought. This is my Father's world, The birds their carols raise, The morning light, the lily white, Declare their Maker's praise. This is my Father's world, He shines in all that's fair; In the rustling grass I hear Him pass, He speaks to me ev'rywhere.

This is my Father's world, O let me ne'er forget That thought the wrong seems oft so strong. God is the Ruler yet. This is my Father's world, The battle is not done, Jesus who died shall be satisfied, And earth and heav'n be one. Amen.

PRAISE GOD FROM WHOM ALL BLESSINGS FLOW

Praise God from Whom all blessings flow; praise Him all creatures here below.

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

From all that dwell below the skies let the Creator's praise arise!

Let the Redeemer's name be sung through every land by everyone.

Eternal are thy mercies, Lord, and truth eternal is thy word;

Thy name shall sound from shore to shore till suns shall rise and set no more.

NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD

Now thank we all our God, with heart and hands and voices, Who wondrous things has done, in Whom this world rejoices; Who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way With countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us; and keep us still in grace, and guide us when perplexed; and free us from all ills, in this world and the next.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

 Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord; He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword; His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory! Hallelujah! Glory, glory! Hallelujah! Glory, glory! Hallelujah! His truth is marching on.

- 2. I have seen Him in the watchfires of a hundred circling camps;
 They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
 I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
 His day is marching on.
- He has sounded forth the trumpet That shall never sound retreat. He is sifting out the heart Of men before His judgment seat. Oh, be swift my soul to answer Him, Be jubilant my feet. Our God is marching on.
- In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea, With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me, As he died to make men holy let us live to make men free, Our God is marching on.

ALL THINGS BRIGHT AND BEAUTIFUL

Refrain:

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful: the Lord God made them all.

 Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings, God made their glowing colors, and made their tiny wings.

COME, COME YE SAINTS

Come, come, ye Saints, no toil nor labor fear, But with joy wend your way; Tho' hard to you this journey may appear, Grace shall be as your day. 'Tis better far for us to strive, Our useless cares from us to drive; Do this, and joy your hearts will swell— All is well! All is well!

Why should we mourn, or think our lot is hard? 'Tis not so; All is right! Why should we think to earn a great reward, If we now shun the fight? Gird up your loins, fresh courage take, Our God will never us forsake And soon we'll have this truth to tell— All is well! All is well!

HOW GREAT THE WISDOM AND THE LOVE

How great the wisdom and the love That filled the courts on high And sent the Savior from above To suffer, bleed, and die!

FAIREST LORD JESUS

Fairest Lord Jesus! Ruler of all nature! O Thou of God and man the Son! Thee will I cherish, Thee will I honor. Thou my soul's glory, joy, and crown.

Fair are the meadows, fairer still the woodlands, Robed in the blooming garb of spring. Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer, Who makes the woeful heart to sing.

Fair is the sunshine, fairer still the moonlight, and all the twinkling starry host. Jesus is brighter, Jesus shines purer, than all the angels heaven can boast.

CALLED TO SERVE

Called to serve Him, heav'nly King of glory, Chosen e'er to witness for his name, Far and wide we tell the Father's story. Far and wide his love proclaim.

Chorus

Onward, ever onward, as we glory in his name; Onward, ever onward, as we glory in his name; Forward, pressing forward, as a triumph song we sing. God our strength will be; press forward ever, Called to serve our King.

Called to know the richness of his blessing— Sons and daughters, children of a King— Glad of heart, his holy name confessing, Praises unto him we bring.

GRACE GREATER THAN OUR SIN

 Marvelous grace of our loving Lord, grace that exceeds our sin and our guilt! Yonder on Calvary's mount outpoured, there where the blood of the Lamb was spilt.

Refrain:

Grace, grace, God's grace, grace that will pardon and cleanse within; grace, grace, God's grace, grace that is greater than all our sin!

2. Sin and despair, like the sea waves cold, threaten the soul with infinite loss; grace that is greater, yes, grace untold, points to the refuge, the mighty cross.

(Refrain)

 Dark is the stain that we cannot hide. What can avail to wash it away? Look! There is flowing a crimson tide, brighter than snow you may be today. (Refrain)

4. Marvelous, infinite, matchless grace, freely bestowed on all who believe! You that are longing to see his face, will you this moment his grace receive?

JOYFUL, JOYFUL WE ADORE THEE

Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love; hearts unfold like flowers before thee, opening to the sun above. Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; drive the dark of doubt away. Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day!

Mortals, join the mighty chorus which the morning stars began; love divine is reigning o'er us, binding all within its span. Ever singing, march we onward, victors in the midst of strife; joyful music leads us sunward, in the triumph song of life.

GOD OF OUR FATHERS, WHOSE ALMIGHTY HAND

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand Leads forth in beauty all the starry band Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies, Our grateful songs before thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past; In this free land by thee our lot is cast; Be thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide, and Stay; Thy Word our law, thy paths our chosen way.

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence, Be thy strong arm our ever sure defense; Thy true religion in our hearts increase, Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh thy people on their toilsome way, Lead us from night to never-ending day; Fill all our lives with love and grace divine, And glory, laud, and praise be ever thine.

Eternal God, open my lips, that my mouth may declare Your glory.

OPENING SONG

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain, For purple mountain majesties, Above the fruited plain! America! America! God shed His grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood, From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for patriot dream, That sees beyond the years, Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears. America! America! God shed His grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

SCRIPTURE READING Psalm 8 (New Jerusalem Bible)

Lord our Lord, how majestic is your name throughout the world! Whoever keeps singing of your majesty higher than the heavens, even through the mouths of children, or of babes in arms, you make him a fortress, firm against your foes, to subdue the enemy and the rebel.

I look up at your heavens, shaped by your fingers, at the moon and the stars you set firm what are human beings that you spare a thought for them, or the child of Adam that you care for him?

Yet you have made him little less than a god, you have crowned him with glory and beauty, made him lord of the works of your hands, put all things under his feet, sheep and cattle, all of them, and even the wild beasts, birds in the sky, fish in the sea, when he makes his way across the ocean.

Lord our Lord,

how majestic is your name throughout the world!

RESPONSIVE READING

"On My Honor" by Dr. Carroll Osburn, 1997

(L = Leader; C = Crew)

L: ON MY HONOR

- C: Almighty God, keep us always mindful that our honor is a possession to be cherished as dearly as life itself. Endow us with firmness of purpose and uncommon integrity that will enable us to fulfill those responsibilities with which we are charged. Make us ever conscious of the trust others have placed in us as Scouts.
- L: TO DO MY DUTY TO GOD
- C: Creator of the universe, how often we forget the true source of life's joys and pleasures. How often, too, have we failed to remember the origin of the inward strength which has enabled us to be aware of Your continual presence in our daily lives. Help us to understand the more meaningful rewards of service in Your name.

L: AND MY COUNTRY

- C: We thank Thee, Almighty God, for the privilege of living in a country such as the United States of America. Keep foremost in our minds that the freedoms which we enjoy were bought through the unselfish sacrifices of those who have gone before us. As the strength of a country is in her people, let us never avoid our responsibility to maintain this nation as a beacon of hope and freedom to all mankind.
- L: AND TO OBEY THE SCOUT LAW

C: Heavenly Father, accept the heartfelt thanks of us Scouts and Scouters for such men of vision and leadership as Robert Baden-Powell, William Boyce, James West, and Waite Phillips, who donated this Philmont Scout Ranch to the Boy Scouts of America. Keep always before us the ideals which they set forth, and grant us the courage to live by them when others may not. Allow us never to forget that our actions may be the examples others choose to follow.

L: TO HELP OTHER PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES

- C: Grant us forgiveness, Patient Lord, when we place the insignificant wants in our lives above the necessities in others' lives. Teach us to recognize and understand the problems facing others and prepare us for each day's task of helping others.
- L: TO KEEP MYSELF PHYSICALLY STRONG, MENTALLY AWAKE, AND MORALLY STRAIGHT
- C: God of our ancestors, let us never forget that our bodies and minds are but temporary gifts from Thee. Help us to preserve, strengthen, and use them for the betterment of our world. May our thoughts and actions be directed toward more meaningful service in Your name. Amen.

MEDITATION AND SHARING

Take a few moments now for personal silent reflection about how God works in creation and in your personal life. You may wish to share these reflections with your crew.

Responsive Reading, "Scout Law"

Scout: A Scout is Trustworthy.

- Leader: Character is what a man is. Reputation is what people think about him. A youth of character is worthy of trust. No one is worthy of trust who does not recognize his dignity and the dignity of all men as children of God.
- Scout: A Scout is Loyal.
- Leader: Because our first loyalty is to God, a Scout is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due—his parents, his place of worship, and his country.
- Scout: A Scout is Helpful.
- Leader: We are told that the good turn we do for others will be considered what is done for Him. Our motive or reason we are helpful is that we see our God in everyone. The whole Scout program gives us an opportunity to be helpful.
- Scout: A Scout is Friendly.
- Leader: We are brothers and sisters. Recognizing this, a Scout should be a friend to all, and a brother to every other Scout.
- Scout: A Scout is Courteous.
- Leader: A Scout should respect everyone. The meaning of love as a Scout should be taken from the words, "I have come not to be served, but to serve."
- Scout: A Scout is Kind.
- Leader: We respect others, not abusing or mistreating, but to trust.

- Leader: A Scout should obey, not because he has to, but because the one leading is someone in authority, and is right in doing so. Victory comes from obedience to all in authority as long as they deserve our obedience.
- Scout: A Scout is Cheerful.
- Leader: A Scout will have joy in his heart and manifest it outwardly by his cheerful manner.
- Scout: A Scout is Thrifty.
- Leader: By being thrifty, we are taught self-respect, making us unwilling to be a burden to others. Far from being a burden, we are able to be thrifty to help them. A Scout is deeply concerned with preserving our natural resources.
- Scout: A Scout is Brave.
- Leader: A Scout can face danger even if he is afraid. He has courage to stand for what he thinks is right, even if others scorn him.
- Scout: A Scout is Clean.
- Leader: He keeps clean in body and thought; he stands for clean speech, clean sport, and clean habits; and he travels with a clean crowd.
- Scout: A Scout is Reverent.
- Leader: He is reverent to God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the conviction of others in matters of custom and religion.

PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY

Leader: Let us pray together.

Our God and God of our ancestors, we ask Your blessing upon our country, on the leaders of our nation, and on all who exercise rightful authority in our community.

Unite the inhabitants of our country, whatever their origin and creed, into a bond of true friendship, to banish hatred and bigotry, and to safeguard our ideals and institutions of freedom.

May this land under Your Providence be an instrument for peace throughout the world. AMEN

OR

PRAYER OF THANKS

Leader: Let us pray together.

We thank You, O God, for this day, for morning sun and evening star; for flowering of trees and flowing of streams, for life-giving rains and cooling breeze; for the earth's patient turning, the changing of the seasons, the cycle of growth and decay, of life and death. When our eyes behold the beauty and grandeur of your world, we see the wisdom, power and goodness of its Creator. We awake and, behold! It's a great day! AMEN

OR

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

 Make me a channel of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me bring your love. Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord, And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Refrain

Oh Master, grant that I may never seek So much to be consoled as to console, To be understood as to understand, To be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

- Make me a channel of your peace. Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness only light, And where there's sadness ever joy.
- 3. Make me a channel of your peace. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

DAILY TRAIL MEDITATIONS

DAY ONE

SETTING DIRECTIONS

To hike successfully at Philmont requires much preparation. Physical readiness, adequate planning in terms of equipment, food, clothing, etc., and a planning of itinerary are all ways to set a direction for your crew. Mental and spiritual preparation are no less important. The Philmont wilderness is a place where God can speak to you in new and exciting ways. Just as you prepare for a trek by tapping the resources of advisers, rangers, and those who have gone before you, so too, do you prepare for experiences of God on this trek by tapping the resources of God's Word. We do daily prayer and reflection which bring us into deeper contact with God. He is your Guide, your Friend, your Strength, your Counselor on this journey. The Lord shows us the way and helps us conquer all fears!

For reflection: How are you preparing yourself to make this trek a journey with the Lord? What can you do to keep yourself aware of God's continuing presence on the trail? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lead me in Your truth, O Lord and teach me! You are the God of my salvation.

How beautiful are the Philmont nights! The stars are so plentiful; they seem so close that you feel you can almost touch them. The silence and beauty of the night help us to realize the quiet power and majesty of God. Yet, this God loves each of us personally and intimately, and the greatest and most beautiful part of His creation lies not in the heavens, but right here on earth. You are the crowning glory of His creative hands—you are the reason for all creation.

For reflection: How do you see yourself as made in the image and likeness of God? What can you do to deepen respect for the beauty and glory of God alive in you?

Are you aware that God is present in each member of your crew? Does that knowledge change how you respond to them? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lord, thank you for life and beauty and the bounty of your creation.

DAY THREE

WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH

The Philmont trek involves climbing mountains and hills; crossing rivers and streams; and dealing with weather, fatigue, and unexpected circumstances and challenges. At times, it may seem that the difficulties are insurmountable, the hardships unbearable. However, it often happens that the greatest hardships in life become our greatest opportunities for growth. We have to realize that we are not alone—we have each other and the abiding presence and help of our God Who will guide us and give us strength. Nothing can separate us from His love. He invites us to trust in him and to realize that we walk with him.

For reflection: What have I done so far to help my crew come together as a team? Do I need to change in order to be more crew-oriented? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lord, help me to be cheerful in the face of difficulties. With your help I will conquer all obstacles!

DAY FOUR

WINDS IN WHISPERING PINES

These words are a line from a song that King David sang to his Lord. We can often hear the wind moving through the pines and playing a soft melody. It is almost as if the trees were whispering to one another or to us below. Or as if God were playing a lullaby for us on His wind instrument.

The Lord touches all of His creation. He caresses the pines with His wind. He touches us with His love and forgiveness.

For reflection: Is there one whom you want to ask for forgiveness? Is there one whom you feel the need to forgive? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Dear Lord, where I have sinned, forgive me, and where I am afraid, give me courage. Amen.

DAY FIVE

EAGLES SOARING HIGH

Have you seen an eagle on the trail yet? We can learn from eagles and from so much in nature.

One day a fisherman watched as a mother eagle dropped a young eaglet into the canyon below. The eaglet plummeted and fluttered. It appeared that it was about to be dashed to its death on the rocks below, when out of the sky plunged the father eagle and caught his offspring on his broad back. Then he flew up high and dropped the young one again. This time the mother caught the little one on her back. The routine was repeated until the little eagle learned to fly.

God gives us opportunities to try our wings so that we might learn to fly on our own. Certainly the Philmont experience is one of these learning and growing opportunities. Yet God always watches over us and spreads His wings of protection beneath us.

God said to the Israelites on their wilderness trek, "I bore you on eagles' wings." So lift up your head and rejoice!

For reflection: Have you discovered new dimensions of your personality? How have you been willing to accept the challenges of the Philmont experience? How have you supported a crew member as he faces the Philmont challenge? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member). O Lord, when I grow weary, lift me up on your wings. Give me the courage and strength I need for tomorrow. Amen.

DAY SIX

FOR FOOD, FOR RAIMENT

Most of us at Philmont have become accustomed to having much more than food and clothes. There is nothing wrong with wealth. Some of the Biblical heroes like Abraham and David were very wealthy. Our heavenly Father in His mercy not only forgives us, He also provides us with all that we need to support our bodily life.

We who have been so richly blessed may choose in thanksgiving to share our wealth with others.

Dr. William Foege, who worked to eradicate smallpox from the world, challenged us to work together to eradicate hunger as well.

If we include the hungry when we pray, we are also asking God to involve us in feeding the hungry. What a great commission this becomes: to join God in feeding the hungry and clothing the naked!

For reflection: What have you done for those less fortunate than yourself? What do you consider our obligations to those in need are? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

For food, for raiment . . . we thank Thee, O Lord.

DAY SEVEN

FOR LIFE, FOR OPPORTUNITY

How precious is the gift of life! At Philmont we can come to a deeper understanding and appreciation of its importance. How necessary to respect it in all its forms. We can take so much for granted—the air we breathe, the water we drink, the health we enjoy, the beauty of the earth. God gives us life to enjoy and he gives us opportunity to grow, to achieve, to find joy and to find happiness. God gives us the ultimate opportunity—the path to eternal life—life with God and each other forever.

For reflection: What does the concept of stewardship mean to you? When have you been a good manager of your own life? When have you shown respect for God's creation? Have you shown respect for another's personal property? How seriously do I take the Wilderness Pledge? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

For life, for opportunity, we thank Thee, O Lord.

DAY EIGHT

FOR FRIENDSHIP AND FELLOWSHIP

One day a kindergarten teacher asked her class, "What is a friend?" One little boy answered, "A friend is someone who knows you and still likes you." If he is right, then what a friend we have in the Lord who loves us. The Lord knows our most secret self and still He loves us.

Friends on the trail are God's gifts to us and through them God seeks to care for us and love us. They are not perfect, but like us, they live forgiven. We thank God for good friends.

For reflection: Who are some of the people who have been friends to you on the trail? Thank God for them by name and thank those who have shown you acts of friendship. Have I been a friend? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or crew member.)

For friendship and fellowship, we thank Thee, O Lord. Amen.

DAY NINE

COUNTRY THAT I LOVE

Philmont does something to people—it is not something that can be put into words easily. Something "gets into your blood." A love for the land, the atmosphere, the people—all these work together in you to make Philmont an experience that you can never forget. The base of that experience is the presence of God—an awareness that all we have and all we offer to others comes from God. The brotherhood that we share as God's children and as Scouts brings us to a sense of peace, a feeling that in some strange way, everything is all right. In that sense, we can call Philmont a "Scouting Paradise," a glimpse of that "Paradise" all of us are called to and will one day experience. It can be a mountaintop experience. For reflection: Can you identify your mountaintop experience? How might this experience help you during difficult times? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lord, it is good for us to be here. Make us a blessing to others on this trek. Amen.

DAY TEN

TRAIL'S END

You have come to the end of your trek at Philmont. Do you feel good about having completed your trek? What do you think was one of your biggest accomplishments these past 10 days? (You may share your thoughts with a friend or crew member.)

Not all of your accomplishments have been physical. You have interacted with God's nature and God's people. There has been frustration and fun. Intermingled with this has been your reflection on God's love and care for you. Through it all, you have grown spiritually. You have run the race and kept the Faith.

You have come to a better understanding of yourself and of your fellow crew members. You have grown in your appreciation of God's gifts to you in nature and in friends.

Now it is time to look homeward to friends and family. You have matured. You are now an even greater and finer gift to your family and friends. God be praised for it all!

For reflection: How will you say "Thank You" for this experience? Will you say "I love you" to those who made this trip possible? What new obligations do you take on because you have been to Philmont? What have I learned about making responsible choices? How can I make better ethical choices when I get home? (You may choose to share your thoughts with a friend or a crew member).

Lord, thank You for every gift that You gave me these past days. As I go home, make me a special gift to my family and friends. Amen.

Now let us go in the strength of the Lord. Let us go in peace and serve the Lord our God.

PRAYERS OF THE PROPHET FOR DAILY LIFE

WAKING UP:

Praise be to Allah who gave us life after death and unto Him will be the return.

Al-hamdu lillah-il-ladhi ahyana baada ma amatana wa'ileyhi in-nushur.

الحَمْدُ للهِ الَّذي أحْيانَا بعْدَ مَا أَمَاتَنا وَإِلَيهِ النُّشورُ

WHEN BEGINNING A MEAL:

Oh Allah! Bless (the food) You provided us and save us from the punishment of the hellfire. In the name of Allah.

Allahomma barik lana fima razaqtana, wa qina aadhaba an-nar, bism-illahi.

اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكِ لَنَا فِيها رَزَقْتِنَا، وَقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ، بِسْمِ اللهِ

AFTER FINISHING A MEAL:

Praise be to Allah who has fed us and given us drink, and made us Muslims.

Al-hamdu lillahi il-ladhi ataamana wa saqana wa ja aalana Muslimina.

الحَمْدُ للهِ ٱلَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَجَعَلَنَا مُسْلِمِينَ

So, worship Allah and associate no other partner with Him. And fear from Him as one should rightly fear, and whatever good undertakings come out of your mouths must be truly fulfilled by you in Allah's presence so that through Allah's blessings you will be united among yourselves. Truly, Allah becomes angry with one who does not keep his promises. May Allah keep you all in His peace.

This is from a sermon of the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh).

Let us seek guidance and forgiveness.

Al-hamdu lillahi, hamdan kathiran, waspsalaamu aala Muhammad, wa aala ahlihi, wa sahbihi ajma'een, wa man tab'ahum be-'ihsan 'ila yom ud-deen.

Inna Allaha wa mala'ekatuhu, yussalloona aala annabi.

Ya ayuhalla-theena 'amanu sallu aaleyhe, wa sallimu tasleema, wa baad.

The Prophet (pbuh) has said as reported in Al-Hadith, Baihaqu, "Show me that you possess these five virtues: That you are truthful when you speak; that you fulfill your trust when you promise; that you guard yourself against immodesty; that you lower your eyes to the ground; and that you withhold your hand from doing what is wrong, then I will guarantee you paradise." (Read three times.)

Iqamat as-sallaat. (Call for the prayer.)

M-19

KHUTBA FOR SALATUL JUMAH (FRIDAY NOON PRAYERS)

Al-hamdu lillahi, nasta'eenuhu, wa nastaghferuhu, wa nastahdeeyahu, wa na'uzu billahi men sharri anfusana wa men sayyee'ati a'malinah. Man yahdeh ellaahu falaa mudella lahu, wa man yudell falaa hadiya lahu. Wa ash-hadu alla ellaha ela Allah, wa ash-hadu anna Muhammadan 'abduhu wa rasuluhu, wa baad.

Wa ba'ad.

Praise be to Allah! I remember and glorify His many attributes of power and mercy, and I ask help from Him. We seek refuge with Allah from the evils within ourselves and from the wickedness of our deeds. For one who is guided by Allah, there is none that can misguide him, and for one who gets astray (as a result of Allah's displeasure), there is none to guide him. And I bear witness-truly, there is no God but Allah, He is the only one with no partner. Undoubtedly, the excellent teaching is the Book of Allah, the blessed and the exalted. One whose heart Allah has adorned with it, and brought him to the fold of Islam after he has renounced the worship of many gods (polytheism), and who adopted it in preference to all other messages of the people, surely he is the successful and redeemed. Verily, it is the excellent teaching and the most eloquent.

Love you all that is loved by Allah. Get the love of Allah imprinted in your very heart, and don't feel tired of reciting Allah's words, and remembering Him, and do not blacken your hearts. This is because from among all that has been created by Allah, and liked and chosen by Him, and best of all the good things, as well as from among the lawful and unlawful, and the good forms of worship, He has assigned superiority to His own words. And He has put love between their hearts. Not if you had spent all that is in the earth, could you have produced that affection, but Allah has done it, for He is exalted in might, wise. (Qur'an 8:63)

﴿ وَأَلُّف بِين قلوبهم ، لو أنفقت ما في الأرض جميعاً ما أَلَّفت بين قلوبهم، ولكن الله الَّف بينهم، إنه عزيز حكيم ﴾ (الأنفال: ٦٣)

M-17

DAY NINE

Reflections: Are we encouraged to nourish an intimate connection with the pulse of creation?

Aisha (rabiyah Allah, wife of Muhammad, Messenger of Allah) often noticed that if there was a roll of thunder, even in the distance, the face of the Prophet (pbuh) would change color. The sound of a powerful gust of wind would likewise visibly move Him and on at least one occasion when there was a downpour of rain He bared His head, shoulders, and breast and went out in the open so that He might share the delight of the earth in receiving the bounty of the earth directly upon His skin. (Adapted from the Sirah of Muhammad, from the Earliest Sources, by Martin Lings.)

DAY TEN

Reflections: This time spent at Philmont has been a time of discovery and growth. What can we learn from the time your crew has spent together with nature? We are the same and yet so different!

WINSLIM

Oh humankind! I have created you male and female from a single soul, and made you nations and tribes so that you may know each other. Truly, the most honored of you in the sight of God is the one who is most righteous. And Allah has full knowledge and is well acquainted with all things. (Qur'an 49:13)

له يا أيها الناس إنّا خلقناكم من ذكر وأنثى وجعلناكم شعوباً وقبائل لتعارفوا إن أكرمكم عند الله أتقاكم إن الله عليم خبير ﴾ (الحجُرات : ١٣)

DAY EIGHT

Reflections: In nature there are many signs of Allah, if we but have eyes to see, ears to hear, and a pure heart to commune with God. What can we learn from the creation of God?

It is Allah who looses the winds that set the clouds in motion, and we drive them on to a land that is dead. Thus do we bring the earth back to life after it has been dead. . . (Qur'an 35:9)

And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth and the variations in your languages and your colors; truly in that are signs for those who know. . . . And among His signs He shows you the lightning by way both of fear and of hope, and He sends down rain from the sky and with it gives life to the earth after it is dead. Truly in that are signs for those who are wise. (Qur'an 30:22, 24)

ومن آياته خلق السموات والأرض واختلاف ألسنتكم وألوانكم إن في ذلك لآيات للعالمين ﴾ (الروم: ٢٢) ومن آياته يريكم البرق خوفاً وطمعاً وينزّل من السماء ماءً فيحيي به الأرض بعد موتها إن في ذلك لآيات لقوم يعقلون ﴾ It is He who has made you His representatives and stewards of the earth. He has raised you in ranks, some above others, that He may try you in the gifts He has given you, for your Lord is quick in punishment, yet He is indeed Oft-forgiving, Most Merciful. (Qur'an 6:165)

﴿ وهو الذين جعلكم خلائف الأرض ورفع بعضكم فوق بعض درجات ليبلوكم في ما آتاكم إن ربك سريع العقاب وإنه لغفور رحم ﴾ (الأنعام: ١٦٥)

DAY SEVEN

Reflections: Allah did not create us to live alone. We share this planet earth with many other creatures. How should we relate to the rest of creation?

There is not an animal in the earth nor a flying creature flying on two wings but they are nations like unto you. We have neglected nothing in the Book (of Our decrees). Then unto their Lord will they be gathered. (Qur'an 6:38)

﴿ وما من دابة في الأرض ولا طائر يطير بجناحيه إلا أمم أمثالكم، ما فرطنا في الكتاب من شيء، ثم إلى ربهم يحشرون ﴾ (الأنعام: ٣٨)

DAY SIX

Reflections: Do we have a responsibility for the condition of the earth?

Let there be from among you, a group of believers who call to what is good, and will prohibit the evil. (Qur'an 3:104)

Allah has promised to those among you who believe and do righteous deeds that He will assuredly make them to succeed (those now with power) and grant them stewardship and responsibility in the land just as He made those before them to succeed others. (Qur'an 24:55)

The world is green and beautiful and Allah appointed you as His stewards over it. He sees how you acquit yourselves. (Saying of the prophet muhammad, pbuh.)

DAY FIVE

Reflections: Amidst the splendor of God's creation, we should remember that much of the earth is today devastated and lain in waste. May humans recklessly exploit the earth without fear of consequence?

Know that We did not create the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, in frivolous play. (Qur'an 21:16)

Corruption has appeared over land and water on account of what man's hands have wrought. (Qur'an 30:40)

Don't you see that it is Allah who has created the heavens and the earth, not without a plan and purpose? He can, if He so wills, remove you and put in your place a new people. That will not be so difficult for God to do. (Qur'an 14:19–20)

WIJSUM

Such is God, your real Cherisher and Sustainer. Apart from truth, what remains but error? How then are you turned away? (Qur'an 10:32)

DAY FOUR

Reflections: How great is the power of God, and how humble should we be in His presence?

To Him is due the primal origin of the heavens and the earth. When He creates a thing, He simply says to it 'Be!' and it evolves into being. (Qur'an 2:117)

Have not the incredulous people considered that the heavens and the earth were originally one closed-up mass, and We rent them asunder? Do not they know that it is out of water that We have made everything living? Will they not then give credence to Our portents? (Qur'an 21:30)

M-11 DAY THREE

Reflections: On the mountains and in the forests of Philmont, the immensity of God's creation is awe-inspiring. How can we understand the majesty of God?

Surely in the creation of the heavens and the earth and in the alternation of the night and of the day are signs for men possessed of minds who remember Allah. (Qur'an 3:190)

With power and skill did We construct the firmament, for it is We who create the vastness of space. And We have spread out the spacious earth. How excellently We do spread out! And of every thing We have created pairs, that you may reflect and learn. Hasten you then to Allah. (Qur'an 51:47–50)

DAY TWO

Reflections: All humans have been given a common nature (fitra). What is the nature of our way which is harmonious with human nature?

Set your face to the true religion—the nature of God, on which He has instituted the innate nature of mankind. No change is permissible in Allah's creation. This is the eternal way. (Qur'an 30:30)

Say: He is God, The One and Only; Allah, the Eternal, Absolute; He begets not nor is He begotten; and there is none like unto Him. (Qur'an 112:1–4)

This day have I perfected your religion for you, completed My favor upon you, and have chosen for you Islam (the way of peace and obedience to God) as your religion. (Qur'an 5:3)

M-9 DAILY MEDITATIONS

DAY ONE

Reflections: To whom do we turn our hearts and minds in worship, remembrance, and service? What are the simple words that guide us through each day?

In the name of God, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. Praise be to God, the Cherisher and Sustainer of the worlds, Most Gracious, Most Merciful, Master of the Day of Judgment. You do we worship, and Your aid we seek. Show us the straight way. The way of those on whom You have bestowed Your grace, those who earn not Your anger and who go not astray. (Qur'an 1:1–7)

WELCOME TO PHILMONT!

Almighty God has blessed us with life, health, and the strength and opportunity to reflect on our spiritual condition and grow our connection with God and His creation. The tests and challenges of the mountains and trails provide the chance to draw closer to God for support and deepen our respect and fellowship with our trail-mates.

This section of our trail worship book has been designed for use by Muslim crews, for Muslim Scouts and Scouters who are members of non-Muslim crews, and for the education and inspiration of persons of all faiths. You will find tables of prayer-times; prayers of the Prophet (peace be upon him) for use in daily living; a khutba, or Friday sermon of the Prophet (pbuh), for use during the Friday noon prayers; and ten days of daily meditations with appropriate passages from the Qur'an or teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) on which to reflect.

Remember that when we are traveling, we are permitted to combine and shorten the noon and afternoon prayers (zuhr and asr) to two units each, and to combine the sunset and night prayers (maghrib) and shorten the night prayer (isha) to two units. It also was the practice of the Prophet (pbuh) never to leave the two units of the Sunnah prayer before the obligatory dawn prayer (fajr), or the one-unit Sunnah closing prayer (witr) after the night prayer. In addition, remember that we are taught that even a smile is charity. God Almighty has commanded us to remember Him at all times and in all places. Since He has promised us His mercy and compassion, we should be thankful and praise Him in all we do. May the peace of God Almighty be with you all.

As-salaamu aleykum.

Blessed are you, Eternal God, Sovereign of the universe, who in Your goodness nourishes the whole world with favor and kind love and mercy. You give food to all living things because Your kind love is always with us. Out of Your great goodness. You never let us lack for food, and may You never let us lack in the future. For the sake of what You stand for—that You are God, who feeds and provides for everyone—You do good for everyone and prepare food for all the living things You created. Blessed are You, O God, who feeds everyone.

DAY NINE

Almighty God, give me grace to keep the solemn Oath which I have made. Teach me to speak and do the truth, and to shun all that is false in speech and deed. Help me to carry out cheerfully our daily tasks, and to do the good that lies near to hand. Make me thoughtful for others and teach me the meaning of true friendship. Forgive me the wrong I have done, and give strength to resist all temptation; and when things go ill, grant that I may turn to You a trustful heart and to the world a smiling face. Help me to be a true Scout, and make me strong to follow You through all life's way. Remind me, God, to thank the leaders of my crew for the encouragement they have given me. AMEN

DAY TEN

We have come to the end of our trek at Philmont. Do you feel good about having completed your trek? What do you think were your biggest accomplishments these past ten days?

Not all of your accomplishments have been physical ones. You have come to a better understanding of yourself and of your fellow crew members. You have grown in your appreciation of God's land and God's gifts to you in nature and in friendships.

Now it is time to look homeward and to family and friends there. You have matured. You are now an even greater and finer gift to them.

What do you want to do for your family when you get home? Your friends?

Israel gave birth in time to other religions that have brought many to God but our responsibility continues, for our mission remains unfulfilled. It will continue until the earth is full of the knowledge of God as the sea-bed is covered by water.

O God of Israel, teach me to be worthy of the name of Jew. May I do nothing to disgrace it. May my every act bring honor to my faith and glory to Your name. May I understand my responsibility as a Jew, to continue the task begun by earlier generations of my people who achieved greatness by their faith in the mission to which You had called them: to serve in Your name, to bring light and blessing to all the families of the earth. AMEN

Hallelujah.
Praise God in His sanctuary; praise Him in the sky, His stronghold.
Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him for His exceeding greatness.
Praise Him with blasts of the horn; praise Him with harp and lyre.
Praise Him with timbrel and dance; praise Him with lute and pipe.
Praise Him with resounding cymbals; praise Him with loud-clashing cymbals.
Let all that breathes praise the Lord.

Hallelujah.

Psalm 150

J-26

that You have made him little less than divine, and adorned him with glory and majesty; You have made him master over Your handiwork, laying the world at his feet, sheep and oxen, all of them, and wild beasts, too; the birds of the heavens, the fish of the sea, whatever travels the paths of the seas. O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is Your name throughout the earth!

Psalm 8

DAY SEVEN

Ma tovu ohalecha Ya-akov h×+>$%@ÀÏ3È^ÈÃÚS· Óœ÷ŸkŸ∐«`3È^Èœ◊ŸT‡ŐĨÆ

How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, your dwelling places, O Israel.

The sense of being chosen impressed itself deeply on the soul of our people. And yet they did not consider themselves superior to other nations, for they knew that all humans are God's children. It was not their lineage but the possession of Torah that made them a choice people. For centuries they stood alone in upholding divine truth and the way of Torah in a world steeped in ignorance, superstition, and cruelty. Yet they always believed that others, too, might be chosen, if only they would choose the way of God.

Only one privilege did they claim, that of serving God and God's truth. And with that privilege came an exacting responsibility: "You of all the families of the earth, have known Me best; therefore I will hold you all the more accountable for your iniquities."

the judgments of the Lord are true, righteous altogether, more desirable than gold. than much fine gold; sweeter than honey, than drippings of the comb. Your servant pays them heed; in obeying them there is much reward. Who can be aware of errors? Clear me of unperceived guilt, and from willful sins keep Your servant; let them not dominate me: then shall I be blameless and clear of grave offense. May the words of my mouth and the prayer of my heart be acceptable to You, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

Psalm 19

DAY SIX

For the leader; on the gittith. A psalm of David.

O Lord, our Lord,

How majestic is Your name throughout the earth,

You who have covered the heavens with Your splendor! From the mouths of infants and sucklings

You have founded strength on account of Your foes, to put an end to enemy and avenger.

When I behold Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and stars that You set in place, what is man that You have been mindful of him, mortal man that You have taken note of him, And God said: "This is a beautiful world that I have given you. Take care of it; do not ruin it."

How can I take good care of Philmont, my country and my world? O God, guide me as I strive to take good care of Your creation. AMEN.

DAY FIVE

For the leader. A psalm of David.

The heavens declare the glory of God, the sky proclaims His handiwork. Day to day makes utterance, night to night speaks out. There is no utterance. there are no words. whose sound goes unheard. Their voice carries throughout the earth, their words to the end of the world. He placed in them a tent for the sun, who is like a groom coming forth from the chamber, like a hero, eager to run his course. His rising-place is at one end of heaven, and his circuit reaches the other: nothing escapes his heat. The teaching of the Lord is perfect, renewing life; the decrees of the Lord are enduring, making the simple wise; The precepts of the Lord are just, rejoicing the heart; the instruction of the Lord is lucid. making the eyes light up. The fear of the Lord is pure, abiding forever;

J-23 DAY THREE

A song for ascents.

I turn my eyes to the mountains; from where will my help come? My help comes from the Lord, maker of heaven and earth. He will not let your foot give way; your guardian will not slumber. See, the guardian of Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps! The Lord is your guardian, the Lord is your protection at your right hand. By day the sun will not strike you, nor the moon by night. The Lord will guard you from all harm; He will guard your life. The Lord will guard your going and coming now and forever.

Psalm 121

DAY FOUR

Oh, how wonderful are the Philmont nights! The many stars seem closer than ever. This land, is so beautiful. The day was a tough one, but so worth it. Thank you, God, for making it possible. Remind me, as I hike and look at the awesome view, that this is Your gift to us.

"And God saw everything that had been created, and found it very good."

JEWISH

DAY TWO

"Even those who are young grow weak; young people can fall exhausted. But those who trust in God will find their strength renewed. They will rise on wings like eagles. They will run and not get weary. They will walk and not grow weak." (Isaiah 40:30-31)

Have you seen an eagle on the trail yet? We can learn from eagles and from much in nature.

One day a fisherman watched as a mother eagle dropped a young eaglet into the canyon below. The eaglet plummeted and fluttered. It appeared that it was about to be dashed to its death on the rocks below, when out of the sky plunged the father eagle and caught his offspring on his broad back. Then he flew up high and dropped the young one. This time the mother caught the little one on her back. The routine was repeated until the little eaglet learned to fly.

God gives us opportunities to try our wings so that we might learn to fly on our own. The Philmont experience is one of these learning and growing opportunities.

Dear God, when I grow weary, lift me up on Your wings. Give me the courage and strength I need for tomorrow. AMEN.

MEDITATIONS FOR EACH DAY

DAY ONE

God be praised, now and forever, for giving us minds to understand Your teachings.

God be praised, now and forever, for hands that lift up those who fall.

God be praised, now and forever, for ears that hear the cry of those who need help.

God be praised, now and forever, for hearts that care about the needs of others.

God be praised, now and forever, for eyes that see the beauty of earth and sky.

God be praised, now and forever, for the new day and this new journey.

We praise God for all that is good, true, and beautiful in our lives.

Dear God, thank you for the wonderful opportunity to be here at Philmont. Give me the strength to endure, the wisdom to enjoy each moment, and the courage to push myself further than I ever have before. Bless my crew and its leaders as we begin our journey through Your majestic mountains. AMEN.

EAGLES SOARING HIGH

TRAIL WORSHIP FOR JEWS, CHRISTIANS, AND MUSLIMS

(JEWISH SECTION)

Prayer during the Jewish day is divided into three major periods, and there are prayer services which correspond to each of these periods. Morning prayers (Shacharit) are recited from the predawn hour when one can differentiate color using natural light through the first half of the day. Afternoon prayers (Mincha) are recited from halfway through the day until sunset, and evening prayers (Maariv) are said from sunset until the rise of the morning star. Prayers are also recited whenever appropriate for experiencing natural wonders as well as for receiving nourishment. The Jewish Sabbath is observed from 18 minutes prior to sunset on Friday (candle-lighting time) until one hour after sunset on Saturday night. To assist Jewish Scouts in calculating the proper times for services as well as for the observance of the Sabbath, we refer you to pages M-5-M-8 of this book for a reference chart.

PHILMONT HYMN

Silver on the sage, starlit skies above Aspen covered hills, country that I love.

Philmont here's to thee, Scouting paradise Out in God's country tonight.

Wind in whispering pines, Eagle soaring high Purple mountains rise against an azure sky.

Philmont here's to thee, Scouting paradise Out in God's country tonight.
